
Rwanda: Arrest of General Karenzi Karake in London

PRESS RELEASE

Kigali, Rwanda — We can confirm that General Emmanuel Karenzi Karake was arrested by the Metropolitan Police on 20 June on behalf of the authorities in Spain.

This was a legal obligation, following the issue of a valid European Arrest Warrant.

The UK has been a close partner in Rwanda's remarkable progress since the horrific events of the genocide in 1994. The UK has a strong and effective aid partnership with the Government of Rwanda.

We co-operate closely on a growing range of regional and international issues. Her Majesty's Government greatly values the close relationship with Rwanda and is committed to that relationship for the long term.
